Weymouth telephoned Adjutant General Hough shortly after noon and thought no troops would be needed at Youngstown, and that the sheriff's force probably	Youngstown, O., Jan. 7.—Official announcement was made this afternoon by the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company and the	Brier Hill Steel Co., of a raise in the wages for common labor from 19½ cents to 22 cents an hour. The Republic Iron and Steel Company has made no announcement. The raise is made effective Jan.	1st. It is not known whether this advance will be acceptable to the strikers who are asking 25 cents an hour.	Youngstown, O., Jan. 7.—Incip-	ent plotting occurred here last night and early today in connection with the strike of workmen at the plant of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company in East	Youngstown, two miles from the main portion of the city. One man was injured. The strike forces had grown today from 600, who were out yesterday, to 3,000. There are 9,000	employees of the plant. The strikers began picketing last evening and worked in shifts all night and were still on duty this morning. During the night and early	today they refused to permit any workmen to enter the plant. Those who attempted it were greeted with showers of stones, bricks and clubs.

FORD PARTY IS PASSING THROUGH GERMANY

Copenhagen. (Via London).—The Ford party left Copenhagen today for The Hague on board the special train for the passage of which through part of the war zone permission had been granted by Germany.

They will be in Germany for eleven hours, from the time they cross the frontier at Warnemünde this afternoon until Holland is reached. Each person in the party is pledged to abide by military rule.

Holland is the last country in Europe which the party will visit. It is expected that delegates from a large number of neutral countries will gather at The Hague for a protracted peace conference.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The submarine crisis, still of uncertain status because of lack of details, was placed by President Wilson before the cabinet today in its first meeting since his return from Hot Springs, Va. The senate foreign relations committee also met to consider the situation, but a chairman Stone was detained at the White House by a conference with the president, adjourned without action.

Although more than a week has passed since the steamship Persia was sunk in the Mediterranean with the loss of American life, officials were today still uninformed as to whether the vessel was torpedoed and if so, the nationality of the submarine and other details which would determine the nature of the action the White House has announced it will take. Developments continued today to indicate that the American government would withhold action pending official advice determining these points.

Overnight developments included the receipt of dispatches from Ambassador Penfield at Vienna asserting that the Austrian government was without information concerning the incident up to the night of January 4, and from Count Garreis at Alexandria, Egypt, stating that he had obtained affidavits from twenty-one survivors and that all confirmed previous statements that "No warning was given and no vessel was seen."

Ambassador Penfield's dispatch added that Baron Borian, the Austrian foreign minister, has asked the information concerning the incident was in possession of the United States. Officers and crew of the Persia, Consul Garreis reported, have left Alexandria for England. Their affidavits, state department officials believed, could be obtained upon their arrival here.

As the cabinet assembled it was made plain that the members agreed with the president that in the case of the Persia nothing can be done until all the facts were in hand.

Some members expressed the opinion that it might never be learned whether the Persia was sunk by a submarine, and if so, that nation was responsible.

Regardless of the outcome of the Persia case, however, the majority of the cabinet members are represented as believing that the time has come for making certain

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 7.—The large three-story depot and office building of the Adams Express Company at the northwest corner of Front and Butler streets, this city, was destroyed by fire early today. The loss estimated at $200,000.

Crossed electric wires in the auditor's department on the second floor of the building is said to have caused the fire.

During the height of the fire a large amount of money was removed from the building by John J. Dale, assistant general agent and a squad of police. Mr. Dale refused to state the amount of money removed.

Columbus, Jan. 7.—The entire main force and equipment of sixteen fire companies was required today when the four story business block on the northeast corner of Long and Third streets was damaged to the extent of approximately $25,000 by a spectacular blaze originating from causes unknown, in the Martin Piano Bench Co., which occupies the entire third floor of the building.

OHIO FALLS

(BULLETIN)

The Ohio river continued falling throughout the day. The gauge at 3 o'clock showed less than 13 feet here.

The Ohio was falling at all points above Portsmouth with the exception of Pittsburgh, where it is rising slowly.

The Ohio, which became stationary here Thursday morning, had fallen over a foot by 7 o'clock Friday morning, when the marks showed 43.6 ft.

The snowfall, which was 3 1/2 inches here and 2 1/4 melted water cannot affect the river unless all should be followed with a rain. The river is expected to begin falling rapidly by tonight. The only packet scheduled to leave here Saturday is the Ray line steamer Greyhound for Huntington at 2 p. m.

The work of adding thirty staterooms to the excursion steamer Homer Smith is nearing completion at Point Pleasant, W. Va. The boat will leave Pittsburgh February 26th on a Mardi-Gras trip to New Orleans. Capt. W. C. Lepper will be in charge of the boat.

Nose, Wrist, Broken

Harry Steed, an employee of the Distel Furniture company, sustained a fractured wrist and broken nose in a fall from a ladder near the Seventh street entrance of the firm's store about one o'clock Friday afternoon.

Steed was assisting in hanging a new advertising sign above the entrance of the store when the ladder on which he was standing slipped on the icy sidewalk, precipitating him to the pavement. He was removed to his home at Third and Washington streets, where his injuries were attended to by Dr. S. S. Halderman.

Firm Will Be Dissolved

Report of the appraisement of the assets of the partnership of Freeman and Thomas, undertakers, of Otway, was made in probate court Friday morning by the appraisers, George Walsh, J. E. Blackburn and Arthur Evans. The assets were appraised as follows: personal goods and chattels, $350.32; moneys, $30.55; securities, $278.50; total, $659.37. The late James Freeman was the senior member of the firm, which will be dissolved by reason of his death. William E. Freeman is administrator of the estate.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and members of the First Christian church for their many kindnesses shown us, also those who sent the flowers and those who sang so beautifully, at our brother Charles Oakley, who said such kind and encouraging words, during the illness and death of our mother. Also Geo. Pfeiffer who had charge of the funeral.

Husband Has White Sweetheart; Colored Woman Asks Divorce

A sequel to the arrest of George E. Dyer, a colored chauffeur, of this city, and his white affinity, Lula Armstrong, earlier in the week, was recorded in common pleas court Friday morning when Attorney Arnold C. Schapiro, representing Dyer's wife, Inez Dyer, filed suit in her behalf for divorce. Extreme cruelty, gross neglect of duty and adultery are charged.

Mrs. Dyer claims that her husband has purchased but one dress for her since their marriage on December 22, 1910, and that purchase constituted his only expenditure for her clothes during their married life. She says that she has been compelled to rely on the charity of her relatives for her support. She also accuses him of having assaulted her and of having broken her glasses. Adultery with Lula Armstrong is also alleged.

W. O. W. TO INSTALL

Installation of the newly-elected officers of River City Camp, Woodmen of the World, will feature the weekly meeting of the Camp this evening. Details of the membership contest, with George A. Ditty Camp of New Boston will be explained by the district manager, Roy McElhenny.

DITTY CAMP INSTALLS

HARD COLDS

Cause Weak Lungs, Portsmouth Druggist Suggests a Reliable Remedy.

We have a constitutional remedy for hard colds and weak lungs which we guarantee. Such letters as this prove its efficiency:

Wickatunk, N. J. "I suffered from weak lungs, pains in my chest and very short of breath. I am an agent for the C. R. R. of New Jersey. I had a very bad cough and lost fifteen pounds in weight and my trouble interfered with my occupation so that I had to stop work last July. I had doctored for sometime without benefit, but when I learned of Vinol through a friend I decided to try it, and soon commenced to improve. My cough has gone, the soreness from my chest disappeared. I am working again, and have regained the fifteen pounds in flesh which I lost." Victor Walden, Wickatunk, N. J.

The reason Vinol is superior to any other remedy is because it contains in deliciously palatable form the healing, body-building and strengthening elements of fresh cod livers, tonic iron and beef peptone—the oldest and most famous tonics known to medicine. Try it on our guarantee.

Impressive ceremonies marked the installation of the newly-elected officers of George A. Ditty Camp, Woodmen of the World, of New Boston, Thursday evening. George A. Ditty, of Columbus, for whom the camp was named, was the installing officer. The new Councilor Commander is John Patten.

Five new applications for membership were presented to the camp, to be included in the new members that will be recorded to the credit of the George A. Ditty Camp in the membership contest with River City Camp of this city, which is now on in full blast.

Winter Picnic

Court house officials and their clerks solved the problem of not having to travel home in the snow to their Monday lunch, Friday, by arranging a picnic spread in the office of the probate judge. Well-known, the court bailiff, officiated as purchasing agent and major-domo of the entire affair, while the officious female clerks made the coffee and gave the spread a home-like touch.

COVENANTER SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS WINS IN BASKET BALL

The Covenanters Boys' Class of the First Presbyterian church won their second victory from the Young Men's Bible Class at the church gym last night. Series of games, lasting through the season, is being played between these two classes, and this makes the second straight win for the Covenanters Boys. The game last night was an easy victory for them, the final score being 28 to 14.

O. Monk and George played the best game for the Covenanters. W. Monk and Bagges had the entire game to play for the Y. M. B. C. and kept the game fast. Elmer and E. Smith, although new at the game, played good ball at guard during the last half. With these games to their credit the Covenanters are boasting that they will never be beaten. The next game will be played next Thursday. The score:

C. B. S. C.	Y. M. B. C.
E. Smith—Bagges C	E. Smith—Bagges C
W. Monk RF	O. Monk RF
Bagges LF	George LF
Crawford	F. Smith

Field Goals:	O. Monk, 8; George, 4; Englebrecht, 2; Williams, 1.
Refrere—Wagner.	Scorer—Hidmoun.

Demurrer Filed.
Attorneys Bauman and Bauman, representing the defendant, filed a demurrer to the petition of J. P. Hurley and James A. Hurley against N. A. Brokaw, of this city, in common pleas court Friday morning, on the ground that the facts do not constitute sufficient cause of action.

Tomorrow's Games

Much depends upon the outcome of tomorrow's games in the Boy Scout League. The honor of leading the league is at stake, as well as that of Celtic Champions. The game arousing the most interest in the East End is the Covenanter game. These two teams have played about the same brand of ball against the Eagles and Tigers, and broke about even in the pre-season contests. Both teams have a large bunch of rookies and a hot game is promised. The Tigers and Eagles will battle in the second game. Honors are about even between these two teams also and it would be hard to pick the winner.

Embarrassing Hairs Can Be Quickly Removed

Shave culture. Hairs can be easily removed from the skin by this quick, painless method. Mix into a stiff paste some powdered talc and water, spread on hair surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be free from hair or bluish. Excepting in very stubborn growths, one application is sufficient. To avoid disappointment, buy the depilatory in an ornate package.

Creditors Meet

A meeting of the creditors of the Seaboard Milling company was held at Judge A. T. Holcomb's office in the Turkey building Friday morning. There was a general discussion of affairs of the company.

THE ETHICS OF ADVERTISING

The Editor and Publisher, a trade paper devoted to the interests of the publishing business, in its last issue had a statement of ethics that might well apply to all newspapers and to all advertisers as well, as they are interested in publishers conducting their business along high lines, and on lines of rendering value received for the money spent by advertisers. The editorial, in part, follows:

The Editor and Publisher does not solicit advertising "to help the paper along."

The Editor and Publisher does not wait for a contemporary to develop an advertising account, and then to proceed to make life miserable for that advertiser until he has also agreed to give it "its full share" of his expenditure for publicity.

No advertiser runs the slightest risk of incurring adverse criticism of his proposition because of his failure to advertise in the Editor and Publisher; and no advertiser secures the slightest immunity from criticism, if criticism of his methods or purposes should serve the trade interests and ethics, because of the fact that he advertises in the columns of the Editor and Publisher.

The Editor and Publisher believes that to serve the public worthily it must adhere, always, to the same high standards of un-influenced independence that make the great daily newspaper a power for public good in its field.

The Editor and Publisher prints the news of the great industry that it serves—but it does not believe that its purpose is best served by going no further than that. It aspires to serve, also, as a forum for discussion of all plans, policies and methods that are influencing the making of newspapers, and their value to advertisers. Its crusade against the insidious coupon evil is merely a case in point. There are more fights ahead—and some of them are taking shape now.

Considering the extent and importance of the field, The Editor and Publisher should carry a great deal more advertising than it does carry. It should not be far behind the Iron Age, the Boot and Shoe Recorder and other trade publications of great importance. It is confidently believed by the management of the Editor and Publisher that the time is not far away when it will carry as large a volume of advertising as either of the trade papers named.

But not a line of this advertising shall ever be secured through the argument that any advertiser in this field "owes" his "support" to the paper—that he should "help it along."

Advertising in the Editor and Publisher, is for the purpose of "helping along" the advertiser. It represents his effort to utilize, for the advancement of his business interests, the channel of communication opened to him, through our columns, by which he can reach his logical patron—by which he can sell his goods, his commodity, his proposition.

We are selling service, and delivering it when we sell it.

We do not want to carry a line of advertising in the Editor and Publisher that does not pay the advertiser. We do not solicit the business of any man unless we believe that we can serve him.

SUCCESS A TWO-EDGED SWORD

Success is a sort of two-edged sword. It cuts both ways. At times, and is about as dangerous a thing to handle as is failure. In fact, success has ruined nearly as many men as has failure.

Because a man is successful in one direction is not indicative that he would be successful in all other directions. James J. Hill, the greatest railroad builder this country has ever known, a man who worked his way up from a section hand to the ruler of an empire, failed miserably in running a newspaper, and had to give it up. There have been many other cases of the kind.

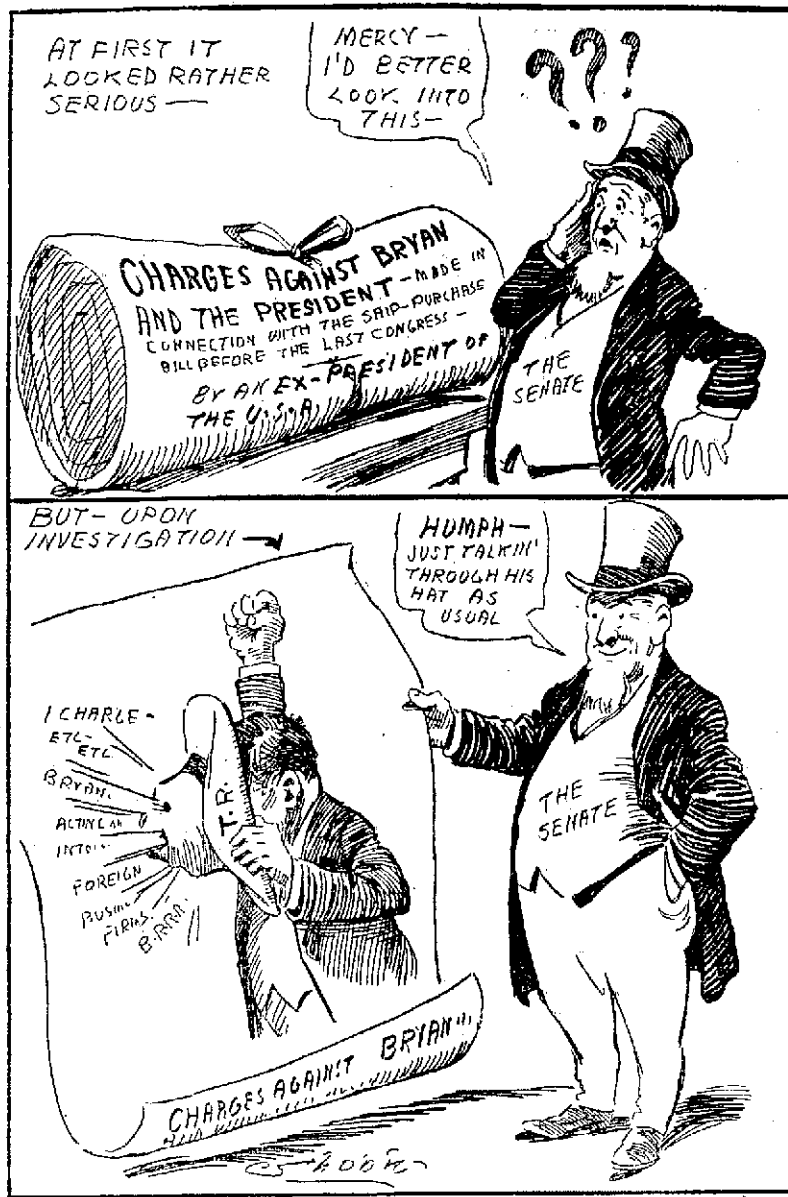

Henry Ford's success as a manufacturer evidently led him to believe he could not fail at anything he turned his hands to. He saw the war looming large in the world. He had accomplished more in the manufacturing world than any other man on earth ever accomplished in the same length of time. He has established economic methods that proved successful when all the rest of the world predicted defeat for them. He had been a pioneer in many respects in business. So it was but natural that he believed he could do in the diplomatic world, or with nations, what no one else could do. His failure is but another example of how it is possible for a man to be successful in one direction and to fail in another direction.—Dayton News.

Times have changed. Here's Mark Hanna's old home in Washington, where he used to entertain President McKinley and other notables at his famous cooked beef breakfasts now being used as the headquarters of the Woman's Suffrage party. Wonder what Mark would say if he happened to turn up some day and discover militant women suffragists holding forth and planning campaigns in his old home?

Tomasso Salvini, contemporary of Booth, Barrett and McCallough, and accounted as good an actor as any of the three, died the other day in Rome. He was 54 years old. He made his greatest successes in Othello and The Gladiator. His last appearance in this country was in 1890. O. many his was considered the greatest "Othello" in the history of the stage.

The idea of the government spending a few millions in canalizing the Seato sounds good, but the question is, what would we do with it after it was canalized? Does any rational being suppose that there would be enough freight to pay the cost of operation and maintenance, let alone justify the expense incurred?

THAT "INVESTIGATION"

FULL AND COMPLETE RETRACTION

One of the staff of our writers last week made us say that Jim Farris was blown up while kindling the morning fire with kerosene. It was the worst blunder this paper ever made. Not that Jim took any exceptions to the item, in fact he rather felt proud of it, but his wife was peeved. She said that in all the years she had lived with Jim that he had not once got up and built a fire, and even if he was her husband she was not going to let him get away with glory that belonged to her. The kerosene explosion incident did not take place in their home at all. It was at the John Farris home and John was the one who was singed.—Smith County (Kan.) Pioneer.

It is unfortunate that so good a law as the new school law should be abused by some superintendents who seek to transform it into a political machine, for their own glorification and advancement. Such men cannot have the goal of the schools at heart. They are just political parasites, willing to sacrifice the interests of the thousands of school children to their own selfish aims. They seek to control the teachers under them by virtue of their authority, and to throw this strength in whatever direction their own fancy might indicate. Fortunately, we are told by a competent authority, there are only a few superintendents in Ohio who are politicians first and school superintendents afterwards, and it is hoped to get rid of these few in the not distant future.

Now that the excellent "Shorty" Weidner has been appointed superintendent of the county infirmary we suppose that he will forget his intention of being a candidate for commissioner this Fall.

Bill Barnes, of Albany, who refused to accept Colonel Roosevelt's characterization of him as a "boss" as being gospel truth until a jury confirmed the charge, now has had to pay for the proving. It cost Bill a trifle over a thousand dollars. 'Twould have been cheaper to have taken to the woods until the raging one had passed by.

It would, indeed, be a happy thing to place Mr. Taft on the supreme bench, in case he desires the appointment. His whole training in life fits him for the position, and he would lend added dignity and lustre to the court. His selection would meet with no carrying or cupious criticism. Of course Roosevelt is excepted.

Charlie Haas says he is not a candidate for a police job. Correct. What's the use of being a candidate when the choice plums that were desired have dropped into other hands? Charlie is a "was," not an "is" in the candidate business.

Mr. Kaps' message to council was a document outlining a most commendable program for his administration, and it is to be hoped that he will be enabled to carry it out. To do so, he will first have to secure the full and hearty co-operation of council, and it is here that most mayor's have fallen down. They have advanced good programs, but by the time councils have gotten through with them, the originators have hardly been able to recognize them.

We have read so much lately of the great and good service being rendered to the government and the dear people by our valued and esteemed partner and his cohorts up at the post office that we utterly fail to understand why they insist upon sending Mr. Mutt and Mr. Jeff down to the Star office when their rightful home is down here in Slabtown at the corner of Front and Chillicothe streets. Maybe however, it is but a further exemplification of the old saying that "a shoemaker's wife goes without shoes."

As a thrifter of ambitions and prerogatives of the dear people, that presidential primary law seems to be a humdinger. Just think, a man cannot be a candidate for delegate to a party national convention unless some candidate puts his o. k. upon him. If that is not taking power from the many and putting it in the hands of the few, what would you call it? Why go through the farce of an election at all?

Since his return to America Henry Ford has been very busy in making a noise like a man who wishes to be forgotten.

Could you believe it? Now could you believe it? Do you believe it, now that it's told? They do say that the poor little squirrel taken aboard the Ford peace-ship as a mascot died for want of nuts! Ye gods, this is not a pun, but is based upon a reliable press dispatch.—Huntington Herald Dispatch.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Jan. 7.—Harry McAlpin and Clardige opened Tammien, who was a wail and then a bartender, makes pets of elephants, and is chummy with John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was in town Xmas week giving Manhattan the once over. Tammien is one of the owners of the Denver Post and is a most interesting personality.

Rockefeller wrote him about three weeks ago: "When you come to New York let me know so I may see you." Tammien replied: "John Dear, Have the hell will I find you?" and the dictated reply came back: "I would be glad to see you at my office. Just telephone Broad 2990." He called on the millionaire and remained two hours, but he wouldn't tell reporters what was said.

Tammien is a soldier of fortune, circus owner and mainspring of his paper. Associated with him on the Post are Harry Bonfils and Otto Flore, the latter the only sporting editor extant with the four O's in his name. Tammien used to be the bartender at the Brown Palace in Denver and he was such live wire that he simply couldn't be repressed.

Miss Mary McCord Tootle, of the St. Joseph Tootles, is to make her debut as an actress in a play called "Fixing Sister," in which William Hoide will star. She is related to the Tootles who own the Tootle Theatre in the Missouri city and is socially prominent.

That new $10,000,000 hotel is to be built near the Grand Central Station is not worrying hotel men at all. Even if the proposed building will have 3,000 rooms it doesn't frighten hotel keepers. Several years ago when a new hotel went up icy chills unathomed up and down the spines of the big hotel owners—but not anymore.

The Vanderbilt and the Biltmore went up in the same neighborhood about the same time and did a good business without hurting other down-town hotels. The McAlpin and Clardige opened the Hotel Majestic a large fol-lowing flock with him, but still the other hotels kept killed. The truth is that the floating population is increasing more rapidly than hotel accommodations and so there is always room for one more.

When Copeland Townsend left the Imperial and became owner of the Hotel Majestic a large following flock with him, but still the other hotels kept killed. The truth is that the floating population is increasing more rapidly than hotel accommodations and so there is always room for one more.

The moment Henry Ford was learned to be on his way home and ill, the New York newspapers ceased their scoffing and there was a genuine note of sincere pathos in all the accounts. It was suggested to Cartoonist Briggs that he could draw an excellent picture of Ford under his title: "When a Feller Needs a Friend."

Edmund K. Stallo and his Cabaret Hound have been amusing the Gay White Way during the holidays. The dog is a Great Dane and is named Koko. He accompanies Mr. Stallo on numerous excursions into the night life of Manhattan and is quite as deserving of being called "a gay dog as his master."

Frequently Stallo checks Koko with his fur coats—his and Koko's. And quite as frequently he orders a steak for his canine companion. Koko got out of the cloak room the other night and came bounding in while a caheret warbler was testing his leather lungs.

Koko squatted at the side of the singer, rolled his eyes heavenward and opened his mouth and let forth a few old-fashioned howls. They had to take him right away from there despite his debut was a hit.

A group of dancing teachers came all the way from Chicago last week to take two dancing lessons from Louis H. Chalfi. They had a special train and only remained two days.

Physical Geography

Horatense is bounded on the north by such a pretty hat.

It seems a bit of Eden which my eyes are looking at. To eastward, lace and furbelows of wondrous shape and kind. Quite dazzling to my vision, prove That love's not always blind. To south of her are sky feet In candid silken hose, That carry her across my heart In shoes with velvet bows. To westward, sheerest draperies In rainbow tints, suggest That goddesses, at least, should be Not always too much dressed.

But where to find her inmost thought?

I hold no magic chart. Geography does not compute Degrees to find her heart. So I'll explore, both far and near Its secret for my own.

"Are you certain of that?" "Certainly."

"Say!" "What?" "Just take a look at the calendar and you'll find it is 1-9-16. Good-bye."

No Chance for Sunday Rest in That Town

Our town was rather on the strait day last Sunday—or rather people from other neighborhoods and communities. A party near Moreland had even all day with a two-horse wagon and team from land he had rented adjoining the city limits and another man and team from Carey come passed through with a wagon load of canned sardines and he had sold a few loads of tobacco also passed through in the evening. All went through by a church where a baptizing was going on and caused a lot of comment.—Huntsville correspondent—Huntsville (Ky.) Journal.

Tooth Etiquette

Do not take the teeth out and polish them during a banquet. This is not done in the best circles.

Do not carry the teeth in the tail pocket of your dress suit, for you are liable to sit down on them and be severely bitten.

When you have to sneeze or cough go away by yourself in a dark corner and hold your hand over your mouth. You can never tell what will happen.

If the teeth click when you talk, oil them frequently, for noisy teeth often disturb the neighbors and this is enough to keep them awake at night without that.

Do not carry the toothbrush in the upper vest pocket, for if you do people will know that you have not cut your teeth very long.—Roy K. Moulton in Akron Beacon-Journal.

A Good Letter

Someone has advanced the opinion that the letter "e" is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet, because it is always out of cash, for ever in debt, never out of danger and in hell all the time. For some reason, he overlooked the fact that the letter "e" is never in war and always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no meat, no life and no heaven. It is the center of honesty, makes love perfect, and without it there could be no doctors, devils nor news.—Evansville.

loaf. Here is a very good recipe:
G. B.
To 25 cents worth of ground meat add 1 egg, 2 or 4 onions chopped fine and enough crackers to hold the meat together. Salt and pepper. Then mix a bottle of ketchup with an equal amount of water, and put this in a skillet or baking-pan. Next put your beef loaf in this sauce and bake about one hour. This is better eaten hot.

Dear Miss Wise—I think the two most tiresome boys in Portsmouth telephone me and call once in awhile when I am not clever enough to think of an excuse that will keep them away. They 'phone and draw out, "Hello," and don't say another thing on their own initiative all through the conversation, unless they ask to call or to take me somewhere. At times when I have let them come to see me the whole brunt of the conversation has fallen on me. They are both very prompt—arrive at about a quarter of eight and stay until 10 o'clock. Two hours and a quarter may not sound long, but the time drags out endlessly for me and I am tired out when it is over. I feel sorry for the boys and don't like to be too horrid. My hints that they bore me and my repeated excuses when they ask for my company do no good. They have no sensitiveness at all. What can I do to get rid of them as kindly as possible? I simply can't stand them any longer.

BETH.
When they 'phone tell them in a few words that you are too busy to talk. Then say goodbye and hang up before they have a chance to speak. This is harsh treatment, but it is the only thing I know of that works in difficult cases. They may 'phone two or three times, but when they hear the same thing each time they will catch on (unless they are very stupid) and withdraw their attentions.

Dear Miss Wise—I belong to a sewing club. There are eight girls in all. We meet twice a month at the different girls' houses. Once in awhile one of us entertains in the evening and boys are invited. The evening and then have the girls stay all night. We only have one large bedroom, though, and I wonder if it would be all right to ask the girls to stay when I would have to use at least four of them to sleep on the floor. Please advise me about this. Of course the girls could go home when the boys do, but I thought it would be fun to have them stay.

KATHLEEN.
The girls won't mind sleeping on the floor at all. If you had several rooms they would probably not have a good time. It will be fun to be crowded into one room, where you can talk all night long and no one will be left out of the fun.

Dear Miss Wise—Years ago we had a good home-made couch cover, but I have lost it. I wonder if you could supply the missing ingredients. I know it contained a scrum and some kind of roots. It was worth its weight in gold and I would like very much to have it just now, as we all have colds.

MRS. B. N.
This is probably what you have reference to: One package here—round, one package confrey root, one package mullain. Take half of each one and steep in a pint (or little more) of water (put on in cold water). Steep well and strain. Add to one-half pint of thick syrup made of brown sugar. Cook a few minutes and it is ready for use. It is excellent. Take half teaspoonful every half hour till cough is relieved. The herbs may be purchased at drug store.

Dear Miss Wise—What is the proper thing to say to the bride and groom after the wedding ceremony?
MARGERY.
Congratulate the groom and extend to the bride best wishes for her happiness. I think when the time comes you won't find it hard to think of something to say.

Dear Miss Wise—I had a girl from out of town visiting me and so one evening I invited two boys over to play cards. I have been going with one of the boys for several weeks and the other boy was a friend of my girl friends. She liked my friend much better than she did hers and she talked to him almost all the evening and didn't pay any attention to the other boy and me. My boy friend seemed to like her very much too. She will be in town for another week and he is going to call on her. Do you think she had any right to try to get my friend away from me? What shall I do?

SUSIE.

Probably your girl friend didn't try to get your boy friend away from you. Sometimes people find so much in common when they first meet that they talk and talk, not realizing that anyone else is around. When she leaves town and your boy friend comes to see you again, as he surely will, don't act as though anything had happened that you weren't perfectly happy about.

Dear Miss Wise—What do you think of a young man who calls on a girl three or four times a week, and about every week tells her he is "through with her"—but comes back just the same?
SAMIE.
I think the girl is a very foolish girl to allow him to call. If she had any pride, the first time the man made such a statement she would have made it very plain to him that the next time he called she would not be "at home."

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Haas announce the engagement of their beautiful and charming young daughter, Miriam, to Mr. Joseph S. Stern, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Stern, of Cincinnati. IVORY KNOBS WINNERS; TYNES MAKES RECORD

With a whoop and a roar, like so many hungry lions, the Ivory Knobs swooped down upon the boys' Submarines of the Masonic League at the Play House alley, Thursday evening and devoured them with as much eagerness as though they were sitting down to pork and beans. The Submarines had just about as much chance as so many rats in a trap, not having a look in at any stage of the contest. They were swatted hip and thigh and when the Knobs got through licking them around they resembled no many kids at a spanking bee.

BURNED AGED NEGRO'S HOUSEHOLD EFFECTS

Roy Kinney and Fred "Peggy" Davis were locked up Thursday night on charges of malicious destruction of property. They are accused of having carried out all of the bed clothing and other personal effects of Steve Johnson, an aged negro, and burning them up at the rear of the Alex Davis property. Johnson has been looking after the property and sleeping there ever since Davis took French leave from the city.

Both Kinney and Davis entered pleas of not guilty in Mayor Kaps' court Friday afternoon, both claiming to have been away from the scene when the clothes are said to have been burned. Davis was fined $5 and costs, which sentence was suspended, but he is being held for N. & W. Detective Reno, who has a warrant against him for stealing coal. Kinney was released.

Lumber Sold
Sale of 35,000 feet of lumber belonging to the estate of the late W. D. James, was made at private sale to his widow, Louisa P. James, guardian of Charlotte and David James, recently by the administrator, H. B. Adams, for $385, or $17 a thousand feet. The sale has been approved by Probate Judge Beatty.

MOVIE
Big Western Feature at Majestic
"The Sheriff of Yellow Creek"
A two reel western feature, is the title of a strong play at the Majestic tonight. This will be followed by a rip-roaring comedy, entitled, "Keeping Up With The Joneses", a wonder. The big program will close with a feature comedy, entitled, "Hattie the Hairdresser." The admission is only five cents.

WITH THE SICK

Mrs. Edith Ashtolz, of 1547 Gallia street, has been sick since before Christmas with an aggravated attack of la grippe and asthma.

The many friends of Mary Louise Geiger, will be sorry to learn that she is very ill with pneumonia at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Geiger on Vinton avenue.

Attorney Theo K. Funk who sustained severe body injuries in a fall some weeks ago, is again able to be outdoors again visiting his office Tuesday for the first time since his accident.

Helen, bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Creveling, of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, is seriously ill with scarlet fever and the family is quarantined. She was doing well when a complication involving the throat, glands and cords of the neck set in. Mr. Creveling was formerly principal of the Portsmouth high school.

Miss Irene Whitman, daughter of Holly Whitman, who is employed at the Selby shoe factory, has been quite ill with lagrippe at the family home, corner Front and Gay streets for the past two weeks.

August Maier, who has been seriously ill for the past several weeks, is now reported considerably improved. His daughter, Mrs. George Lehman, of Columbus, who has been very ill, is also better.

Mrs. Lillie Payne, wife of Grocer William M. Payne, is ill with grip at their home, corner Second and Jefferson streets.

Eugene Stewart, who travels for the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company, has been ill with the grip since January 1.

Mrs. Martha Shoemaker, mother of David Shoemaker of the Washington hotel, is recovering from an attack of stomach trouble at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dudley Curtis of Ohio Ave., Columbus, Ohio.

Ed McGlone, a meat cutter at P. F. Frederick's meat market, is off duty with the grip.

Mrs. John A. Wurster of Sixth street, who has been ill with the grip for ten days, is improving.

W. B. Tomlinson is one of the latest victims of grip.

Mrs. Charles F. Tracy and son Harold and daughter Edna of Waller street, who have been ill with the grip are slowly improving.

Johnson Crapper is recovering from a very severe attack of rheumatism at his home on Seventh street.

Mrs. Emma Strong has been very sick at her home on Seventh street.

Probate Judge Beatty is laid up at his home on Ninth street with an attack of grip.

Miss Dorothy Kahl, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kahl, of Tenth street, is seriously ill with pleurisy and the grip.

Miss Norma Petry of East Third street, is a victim of the grip.

Elroy Woolan, of 801 John St., a Times Noon Extra newsboy, is laid up at his home with the grip.

Germaine, a five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Switalski, Jr., of Second street, who has been very ill for the past four weeks, is holding her own, but not yet out of danger.

The condition of Ruth, the four-year-old daughter of Ed Spangler, proprietor of the Pennant pool room, was very alarming Thursday night, several physicians being in almost constant attendance. It was feared she would not survive the night, but she rallied and took a turn for the better Friday. Another child of the household, Mildred, who also had scarlet fever, is steadily recovering.

Miss Eleanor Reitz is able to be outdoors again after an extended and serious illness.

W. S. Beyer, local insurance agent, is ill with the grip at his home on Chillicothe street.

Mrs. John Zeisler of Glover street, who has been very ill, was reported better Friday. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Montague, who have been visiting her, returned to their home in Pennsylvania, Friday.

W. P. P. A. PROGRAM

Following is the official program for the W. P. P. A. mass meeting at Trinity church next Sunday, A. A. Osakes, presiding:

2:00—Opening Song—Male Chorus, led by Prof. Grant.

2:05—Selection—Pilgrim Singers.

2:10—Introductory remarks by the chairman.

2:15—"Membership"—Secretary L. C. Payne.

2:20—Selection—Aeolian Quartette.

2:25—"What the W. P. P. A. Are Doing, and What We Want to Do"—Harry Edwards.

2:45—Selection—Male Chorus, led by Prof. Grant.

2:50—Closing remarks by president and introduction of the speaker of the afternoon, Mr. C. Fenwick Reed.

3:00—Address—C. Fenwick Reed. All members of the W. P. P. A. are requested to get their new membership cards from the officers at this meeting. Ushers will report at 1:50 to chief usher for their badges. All others who have been appointed for various duties at the meeting will also report at this time.

WILL PROMOTE CREDIT SYSTEM

A meeting of the directors of the Business Men's Association will be held at their offices in the Masonic Temple building next Monday evening to promote the credit system program of the local association, which was launched for the first time this year at the smoker Thursday evening. An effort will be made to get at least two hundred signatures to contracts for the credit book soon to be issued to replace the one issued two years ago.

Delmar Geiger, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geiger of Summit street, is confined to his home with a threatened attack of pneumonia.

WILL CONFER ON WATERWORKS

At a private conference held by the board of control Friday afternoon it was decided to send a telegram to J. F. Witmer and a board will probably be ready company of Buffalo, to have Mr. Witmer report here at once with his plans and specifications for the new waterworks.

WHO WILL GIVE CHAIRS?

Miss Letta Adams, deaconess of the Associated Charities, asks The Times to make a plea for a donation of three kitchen chairs and a kitchen table for a needy woman in this city, who will be able to help herself if she has those articles of furniture. A local firm has donated a second hand range which has been delivered to her.

Any one wishing to donate one or all of the articles is requested to call up phone 1740, the Associated Charities headquarters' number.

CARL YUENGER WEDDED

A marriage license, issued last Tuesday to Carl Yuenger, 25, and May Metze, 27, both of this city, was just made public Friday morning at the probate judge's office. They were married on last Tuesday by Squire A. J. Finney. The bridegroom is employed by his brother, Albert Yuenger, Second street saloonist, while the bride has been employed as a laundress.

GRAND JURY MONDAY

Between 90 and 100 witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury, which convenes in special session next Monday afternoon. The grand jury will probably remain in session three or four days. Sheriff Smith and his deputy, Rome Arthur, will be kept busy for the remainder of the week serving subpoenas.

Nancy Ann Holley, of New Boston, defendant in a divorce suit filed by James H. Holley, has filed her answer and cross petition.

She admits having a revolver belonging to the plaintiff, but claims that she took it from him to prevent him from shooting her. She claims her husband has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards her and charges him with being an unfit person to have the custody of their children.

Judge Thomas granted a temporary injunction restraining her husband from interfering with her.

The home of John W. Snyder, of the Portsmouth Banking company, has become suddenly transformed into a veritable hospital. Mrs. Snyder and four of the children and Mr. Snyder himself was under the weather, Friday.

Suit Is Filed.

Edward Bailey of Lynn P. O. is the plaintiff filed in Squire Finney's court Friday against Ella Weaver for a balance of $42, which he claims due on an account. Geo. W. Sheppard is his attorney.

Hearing Saturday.

The divorce case of Sina Spriggs against Joseph M. Spriggs will come up for hearing before Judge Thomas Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Milner, Miller and Seal represent the plaintiff, who is also suing for alimony.

Answer Filed.

Alva O. Lyons, defendant in a suit for alimony filed some time ago by his wife, Eva Florence Lyons, filed his answer, through his attorney Theodore K. Funk, in common pleas court Friday afternoon. In it he admits certain facts of the marriage set forth in the plaintiff's petition, but specifically denies the allegations of the plaintiff of neglect and cruelty. He claims that he has always provided a good home for his wife, and did not deny medical attention for her when she was sick.

He also claims that his wife is possessed of sufficient property in her own name, and asks that her petition for alimony be denied.

OBITUARY

George W. Gillen

George W. Gillen, aged 75 years, who was one of the oldest and best known citizens of the West End, died at his home, corner Second and Madison streets, Friday morning at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Gillen succumbed to pneumonia, which he developed following a severe week's siege of influenza. He had not been feeling well for the past six weeks and had been bedfast for several weeks.

Mr. Gillen was a pioneer furman, but had been leading a retired life for some years past. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Sarah Gillen, two daughters, Mrs. William H. Barber of Front street, Mrs. Emma Metze, of Second street, and five sons, Frank Gillen, of Ironton; William Gillen, of Walling; George Gillen, of Morville; Dr. J. S. Gillen, of South Pittsburg, Tenn.; and Harry Gillen, night watchman of the Reliable Engine Company's plant, this city. The late John Gillen, former sheriff of Scioto county, was also a son. His death occurred February 26, 1914.

Mr. Gillen's end came in the most peaceful manner possible. He had reconciled himself to his fate and as he remained conscious up to the last was filled with beautiful sentiment in the farewell moments he spent in conversation with the loved ones surrounding him.

KEEP AWAY THE GRIP

Warm, well shod feet—there you have the very first essentials in keeping away the grip buy. You will be well prepared if your feet are incased in a pair of

WEBER'S SHOES

They are made of solid leather, well lined and will stand up under all kinds of weather.

Then a pair of RUBBERS will come in handy, for they are a great barrier to wet feet—and the grip.

If you will make WEBER'S your Shoe Headquarters you will have the satisfaction that you have picked out the proper place.

MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR, IS SHOT BY POLICEMEN, DIES FROM THE WOUNDS

Relative to the killing of a former young man of Lewis county, Ky., the Vaneburg, Ky., of this week said:

going to Sioux City, and a few minutes before leaving on the 2:50 train
 Friday afternoon, received another telegram, which stated that Joe had died from the effects. He had been working as fireman for the Omaha railroad for some time, making his headquarters at Sioux City, Ia. On the evening when he was shot he, in company with Herman Nelson, who is employed as a car checker for the Great Northern railway at Sioux City, attended a show at one of the theatres. Mr. Nelson worked as freight clerk for some time in the local depot in Elmora. After the show they started towards home, and before separating, stopped to talk on a corner. An automobile, containing two policemen, two plain clothes men and the chauffeur, passed them while they stood on the corner talking. Immediately after this, Herman left Joe and the car was backed up towards Harrison. The searchlight was thrown on him and the police told him to stop as they wanted to see him. He asked them who they were and was told that they were officers. As this was in a vicinity where there had been a great number of holdups, Harrison was a little skeptical and asked them to show proof that they were officers.

LOCAL PLAYER ON ALL STAR ELEVEN

An all southeastern high school football team made by W. E. Thomas of Wellston finds but one Portsmouth man on this mythical eleven, Left Guard Duweil.

Fronton failed to get a man on the first eleven but had two, Mittendorf as left end, and Davis as quarterback, on the second team. Brandle of the P. H. S. eleven was placed on the third eleven as center. Here is the first team as picked by Mr. Thomas:

MICHIGAN'S SCHEDULE

Michigan's football schedule for next fall includes eight games, seven of which are to be played in Ann Arbor. The Wolverines open the season with Marietta and close it with the University of Pennsylvania.

Football Vs. Tennis

In the mind of the average follower of sport there is a wide gulf between football and tennis yet a number of busy collectors spend their spring and summer in wading a racquet and find themselves fit in the fall for strenuous season of "vicious gridiron work." This is no new angle to the court game for twenty years ago the college athlete was mixing football and tennis but not

Taxi Men Fined After Fist Fight

Passengers and bystanders in the vicinity of the N. & W. depot were treated to a lively fist-fight between rival taxi line managers Thursday evening.

Thomas L. Wall, of the Interstate Company, and John E. Frostick, of the Independent Company, were principals in the mixup, which was precipitated by an argument that arose over the space allotted to them on the depot premises. Wall accused the other of deliberately backing a taxi into one of his, charging it was his second offense of the kind. Both appeared willing and eager to settle their differences with the means of defense nature had supplied them with, and backing off to one side, were soon wading into each other.

Police Officers Albrecht and Templeman separated the belligerents before the slugging match had progressed very far, but both men showed some marks of the encounter. They were escorted to headquarters where Mayor H. H. Kaps released them with orders to reappear Friday afternoon at one o'clock.

In police court Friday afternoon, Frostick entered a plea of guilty to disorderly conduct, and was fined $10 and costs. Wall pleaded not guilty, claiming that Frostick ran into him and after a quarrel ensued, invited him to fight. He said that there were no police about, and he accepted the invitation. The mayor held that Wall was apparently willing to fight and was equally guilty, and he was fined $10 and costs.

The mayor advised both defendants that he and the chief expected to make a visit to the N. & W. depot and allot the space to each company. He said he expected to stop this continual turmoil if he had to induce counsel to pass an ordinance keeping both companies away from the depot and making them stand on Waller street, away from the depot zone.

Witnesses against the two men were Officers Albrecht and Templeman, who separated them while they were fighting.

Two rough looking men entered Isaac Thompson's grocery at Grandview avenue and Summit streets about 6:45 Thursday evening and acted very suspiciously. Police headquarters was notified but the pair disappeared before officers could reach the scene.

Father Is Seriously Ill

John Doherty, a popular former Portsmouth ball player and umpire, is here from Chicago visiting at the bedside of his father, Henry Doherty, who is dangerously ill at his home on Third street. The father is 84 years of age. John at present holds a responsible position with the Marshall Field Company, Chicago.

SPORT SALAD

The Cincinnati Reds, like a lot of other clubs, were badly bumped by the Federal League clubs, and they are anxious to make a gain at some of the stars played on the market by the owners of the independents. Other teams are in the same boat and it all seems to have an equal opportunity. It is difficult just now to figure which will benefit the most in the long run. Jimmy Callahan is expected to go from Chicago to Cincinnati to counter with President Doherty in case the bidding should begin there this week. Ed Moran, pitcher of the Phillies, Joe Tinker of the Cubs, Miller Huggins of the Giants, and possibly all or nearly all the others may be looked for when the national commission devises a method of opening negotiations for the pick of the Federal League.

"OLD KENTUCKY" IS RICH AND FRUITY

This Delicious Chew Has the Wonderful Flavor of Choicest Burley Leaf

MADE BY MODERN METHODS

If you don't chew tobacco you simply cannot get the full measure of enjoyment out of it. A good chew, with its juicy richness and appetizing flavor, is an aid to digestion. That means it's beneficial to the whole system. And the best chew is plug tobacco, the closest to nature form into which tobacco leaf can be made. Nature's own sweetness is in every juicy chew of Old Kentucky. You never before tasted such mellow richness—you can't get so much deliciously sweet flavor out of any other chew. The rich leaf of Old Kentucky is selected, re-selected, picked over by hand, stemmed by hand, pressed into pure, luscious, golden-brown plugs by the most wholesome modern methods. Try a 10-cent plug of Old Kentucky. You'll find it wonderfully tasty, wholesome and appetizing—a rich, mellow chew that excites your taste.

Nine out of ten persons have this dread disease

Ptyorrhea—the most general disease in the world—is the disease you should be guarding your teeth against. It is caused by a germ which is found in every human mouth.

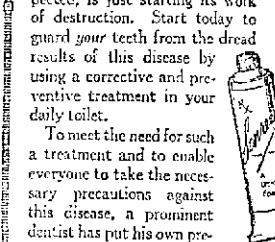

Thousands have already lost some or all of their teeth from this disease; in thousands it has reached the stage of bleeding gums and loose teeth; in thousands of others the germ, unsuspected, is just starting its work of destruction. Start today to guard your teeth from the dread results of this disease by using a corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for such a treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Seneco Tooth Paste.

Seneco contains the best corrective and preventive for ptyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Seneco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Seneco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 2c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the ptyorrhea treatment. Get Seneco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Seneco Remedies Co., 503 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Build Up Your Class, Keep On Doing Good, For The World's Sake, Argues Pastor.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF BIGELOW'S BIG BIBLE CLASS IS A SPLENDID SUCCESS

(By Shonk)

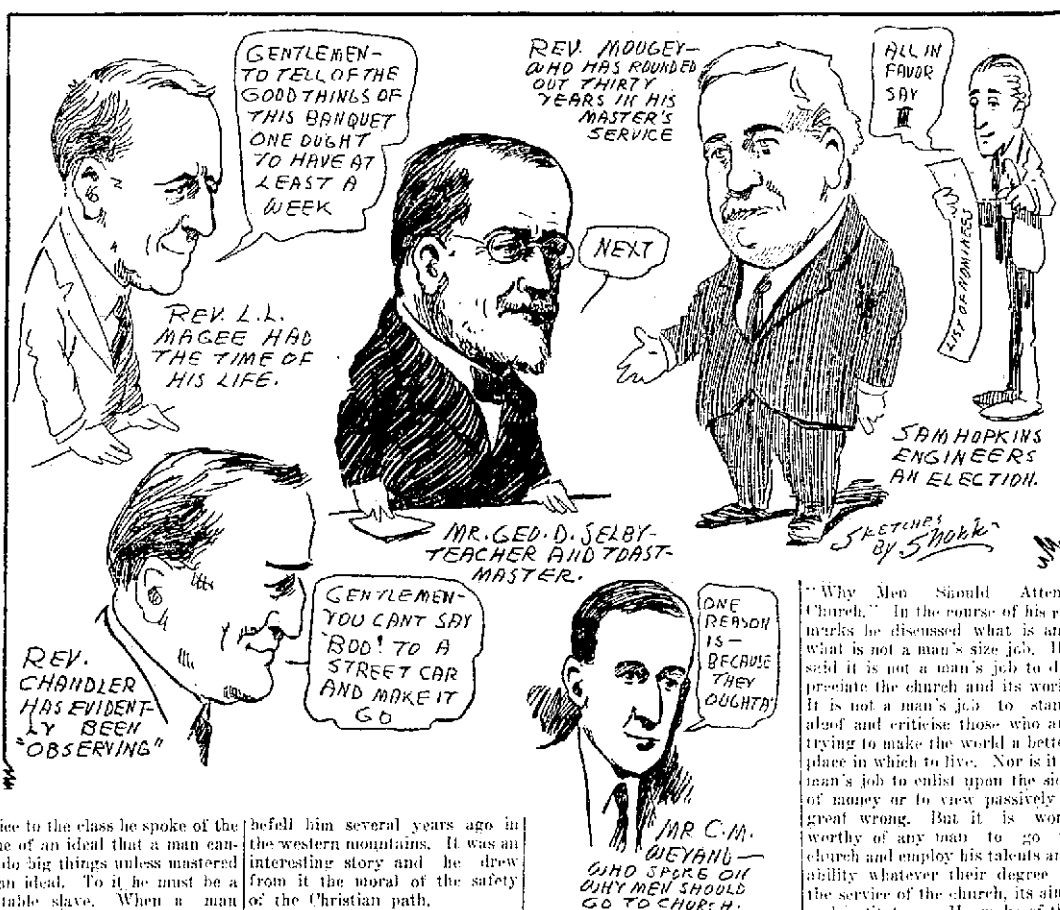

At tastefully decorated tables and served by a bevy of charming young ladies, Mr. George D. Selby's Bigelow Bible class of about one hundred and fifty members and friends sat down to an elegant banquet Thursday evening in the church parlors.

It was a representative body of men that assembled around the festal board. Mr. Selby has a way of succeeding with whatever he undertakes and his Bible class is one of his first successes. In it he has succeeded in surrounding himself with a fine body of men from all walks of life. At the banquet Thursday night were lawyers, doctors, bankers, farmers, merchants, teachers and workmen of almost every trade and occupation represented in the city and all fraternizing in a truly congenial and democratic spirit.

After the table was cleared of the remnants of the spread the class president, Mr. Orson Ogier, addressed the class teacher, Mr. Selby, as sympathizer over the best of reason and eloquence to follow. Mr. Selby accepted the toast, paying a fine compliment to his class and expressing the satisfaction it gave him to preside over them. He expressed the hope that the members should partake of some of the material feasts of the class and also of the spiritual feast which there is no danger of indulgence.

The toastmaster then called upon District Superintendent Rev. L. L. Magee for a short talk. Rev. Magee did not consider a short speech sufficient in which to express appreciation of the good things done by him. He thanked the class, the young ladies and those who had prepared the evening's entertainment and spoke of the quality of the fine work being done by the class.

Rev. C. E. Chandler followed and caught the audience with a story which he skillfully converted into a fine moral lesson. He spoke of the spiritual feast of soul and later in the program again called upon by the toastmaster for a few words of advice to the class he spoke of the value of an ideal that a man cannot do big things unless mastered by an ideal. To it he must be a veritable slave. When a man starts out with a big idea before him and bends all his efforts to the development of that idea he is going to do something. He closed with an appeal to the members to continue to build up the class, not for the class' sake nor yet for the church's sake, but to keep in mind the bigger idea and build for the world's sake.

Mr. Harry Edwards was next called and responded in his usual interesting style, basing his remarks upon an experience which befell him several years ago in the western mountains. It was an interesting story and he drew from it the moral of the safety of the Christian path.

After Mr. Edwards Mr. H. L. Cline responded to the toast "How To Keep Men In The Church." He spoke of the need of sociability among members, both in the church and out of it. He said the church should be one big family all working and pulling together.

Rev. Mongey delivered the next address and made a fine impression. Rev. Mongey was formerly a teacher in the Portsmouth high school but has for thirty years been in the Methodist ministry. He told of his early life as a minister, how at a personal sacrifice he had taken up the work but was glad of his choice. Rev. Mongey is a man of splendid physical type and his address was an inspiring appeal for better living and better work in the interest of God and man.

Mr. C. M. Weyand, secretary of the local Dry Federation, was next introduced. His topic was

And it is because the church offers the opportunity for the man's spiritual development that he should be in the church.

Mr. Selby then gave a short talk in which he said that it was the vision of a man's work that had led to the formation of the class thirty years before. He said there had been discouragements but they had kept at the work and the splendid class of today is the result.

The next speaker, Mr. Young, a recent addition to the class, spoke upon "Why Men Do Not Go To Church." He made a fine address around the central idea that the chief reason men do not go to church is the multiplicity of crowds and the lack of unity of ideas as to what constitutes a Christian.

The toastmaster took issue with the speaker upon this thought

Indoor Life Makes Fat

Take Oil of Kerein to Keep Weight Down, or to Reduce Superfluous Fat.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against over-stoutness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any person who is satisfied in their own mind that they are too stout should go to a good druggist and get a box of oil of kerein capsules, and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days' treatment should show a noticeable reduction in weight, digestion should improve, energy return, footsteps become lighter, and the skin less flabby in appearance.

Oil of kerein is inexpensive, cannot injure, helps the digestion and is designed to increase the oxygen-carrying power of the blood. Any person who wants to reduce their weight 15 or 20 pounds should give this treatment a trial. There is nothing better.

and stated that he did not believe the church today was concerned about creed. All that it asks of a man is to live a Christian life.

Messrs. F. W. Myers, of the Morning Star and J. H. Shonk, editor of the Times were each called upon and both responded with a few timely remarks. Grace was said prior to the banquet by Rev. L. L. Magee and the invocation at its close by Rev. C. E. Chandler. The young ladies of Mr. Roger Selby's class served the banquet.

The report of the nomination committee was read by Mr. Sam

Hopkins and by acclamation the class elected officers as follows: O. H. Ogier, president; Harry Stanley, secretary; Hartzell Evans, assistant secretary; John Gerlach, treasurer; George D. Selby, teacher; and W. D. Gilliland, B. H. Dillon and Dr. Howard Williamson, assistant teachers.

Frank Kaylor of 423 1/2 Front street, who had a leg fractured in a fall on the towpath some months ago, is now able to be outdoors again.

5c at Temple Theater

We have tonight a strong story of the friendship between two men entitled "The Friends of the Sea," a Reliance production, Monroe Salisbury and Alfred Paget being starred in this Damon-Pythias drama, with beautiful Adoni Fovieri as the bird beloved of both. The scenes are laid in a primitive coast fishing village, and on Brenton's Reef, known as "The Seaman's Grave." Wonderful ocean backgrounds lend beauty and impressiveness to a deeply touching story. The finale recalls "Enoch Arden" and yet, the tale is different, with a flavor and human appeal distinctly its own.

FEEL YOUNG!

It's Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets For You!

Beware of the habit of constipation. It develops from just a few constipated days, unless you take yourself in hand. Coax the jaded bowels muscles back to normal action with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The substitute for calomel. Don't force them to unnatural action with severe medicines or by merely flushing out the intestines with nasty, sickening cathartics.

Dr. Edwards believes in gentleness, persistence and Nature's assistance. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets open the bowels; their action is gentle, yet positive. There is never any pain or cramping when Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are used. Just the kind of treatment old persons should have.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. Take one or two occasionally and have no trouble with your liver, bowels or stomach. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

PAN-AMERICAN POLICY IS OUTLINED BY PRESIDENT

PERU NAMED FOR THE NEXT CONFERENCE

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States government's Pan-American policy was revealed in detail by President Wilson last night in an address before the second Pan-American Congress. He explained the proposals submitted to South and Central American diplomats here last week by Secretary Lansing as a basis for an effective agreement between all the republics of the Western Hemisphere "not only for international peace of America but the domestic peace of America." This program, as outlined by the president, proposes that all the American nations shall:

Unite in guaranteeing to each other absolute political independence and territorial integrity.

Agree to settle all pending disputes as soon as possible by amicable process.

Agree to handle all disputes arising among them by patient, impartial investigation and to settle them by arbitration.

Agree that no revolutionary expedition shall be outfitted against any other American nation.

PORTSMOUTH ELECTS

Directors of the Portsmouth Savings and Loan Association at a meeting Thursday night effected an organization by electing the following officers: L. W. Bragdon, president, John Moeller, vice president, Marvin C. Clark, secretary and Cecil S. Miller, attorney.

MASSIE INSTALLS

Annual installation of officers by Massie Lodge Knights of Pythians was held Thursday evening and the impressive exercises were witnessed by a large audience of Pythians.

District Grand Chancellor W. E. Cook acted as the installing officer and the following newly elected officers were inducted into office:

Edgar Smith, chancellor commander; A. Clifford Wilson, vice chancellor commander; O. Beckman, prelate; Walter W. Glenn, inside guard; Roy Gable, outside guard; Ralph Loft, master of work; J. B. Craigville, master of finance; W. D. Hoss, master of exchequer; O. Y. Carrell, keeper of records and seals and Arthur Stewart, past chancellor.

At a meeting next Thursday night the page rank will be conferred upon a class of seven candidates.

Complaint was made to the police officers Thursday evening about loafers forming a habit of entering the passenger depot waiting room and loitering there, to the annoyance of passengers. Officers Hardin was detailed to break up the practice.

Mrs. E. W. Boory, of No. 1250 Eighth street, complained to the police Thursday evening about some neighbor children, by their noisy actions, annoying her husband, who is ill.

Ashtand Interests.

Albert Knazel of Ashtand, Ky., was here today to inspect the automatic loachell machine owned by Robert B. Doyle. Mr. Knazel will probably install a similar machine in Ashtand.

Knows Steamer Victims

Having spent his boyhood in Racine, O., which is not many miles from the spot where the steamer Kanawha struck a government dam and sank in about 38 feet of water, Win Nye, a Chillicothe street druggist was naturally very much interested in the welfare of the passengers on the ill-fated craft, as he still remembers the people living in and around Racine.

In scanning the list of those believed to have perished in the swollen Ohio, Mr. Nye was sorry to find the name of a former schoolmate, Mrs. E. C. Atkinson.

Mr. Nye is also well acquainted with the Beagle's who were on the boat. This family, at one time quite poor, is now very wealthy, having been very successful in the produce business, shipping most of their produce to Pittsburgh markets.

Mr. Nye was born and reared in the vicinity of Racine and names that appeared in the list of passengers on the Kanawha were all very familiar to him.

TRINITY CHOIR

The Trinity choir will meet at 7:15 tonight for weekly practice. All members are urged to be present.

At McDermott

Sheriff Smith went to McDermott Friday morning on official business.

Prayer Meetings

Four cottage prayer meetings will be held this evening by members of the Kendall Avenue Baptist church at the regular hour, and all in the vicinity of the homes named are earnestly requested to attend. The meetings will be at the following homes: Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Fridinger, 2311 Grant street; Mrs. Laura Sigman, 2290 Gallia street; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lewis, 924 Walnut street; Mrs. Amanda York, 732 Kendall avenue.

GUN THRUST IN FACE; POCKETS ARE RIFLED

Frank Gilliland, of Tenth street, a watchman at the Lawson Run vic- covered him with a gun while the other ransacked his pockets. He reported to the police that two well-dressed white men, wearing overcoats, had held him up at 12:45 o'clock Friday morning. Gilliland said that one of the men turned to him. They then ran up the railroad tracks. Officers Branch, Osborn and Callahan Smith searched for men of the description given by Gilliland, but without result.

FOUR BISHOPS THINK THAT PORTSMOUTH FORTUNATE

By securing the services of Fenwick Reed in the union revival to be held at Trinity church auditorium beginning Sunday, four bishops of the Methodist church think Portsmouth is fortunate. They all over the country are continually after Evangelist Reed, and his coming to Portsmouth for a campaign will no doubt disappoint other localities which have been after him. Bishop Edwin H. Hughes who appeared on the high school lecture course a few weeks ago is very loud in his praises of Fenwick Reed as a man and as an evangelist, and thinks that the local churches are doing well to secure the services of such an able man. Bishop Francis McConnell writes from Denver that he has the greatest admiration for Fenwick Reed and his work and this from Bishop McConnell is praise indeed. Bishop Moore and Bishop Quayle are no less enthusiastic over the work of Evangelist Reed than other bishops and ministers with whom Reed has worked, and all are sanguine of great success in the local meetings.

INSTALLATION FOLLOWED BY ENJOYABLE SMOKER

Annual installation of officers was the magnet that drew one of the largest crowds of the season to the Eagle hall at Second and Court streets Thursday evening. Officers elected recently were installed with impressive exercises, the role of the installing officer being successfully enacted by District Grand Worthy President Percy Dunn, of Ironton. There were many visitors present and the meeting took on the form of a love feast. One visitor hailed from Fairbault, Minn. The following officers were installed: Past worthy president, W. O. Stanger; worthy president, W. B. Schuler; worthy vice president, Paul K. Bauer; worthy chaplain, Ernest Beaver; worthy secretary, H. H. Grace; worthy treasurer, W. J. Baker; trustees, Henry Roth, Otto Laufer and W. G. Hall. The installation services were followed by a very enjoyable smoker. Many short talks that reflected the true Eagle spirit were made at the meeting.

Sustains Verdict

The Ironton Irontonian of local interest Thursday said: "The clerk of Courts Mountain has received from the court of appeals the decision of that court upon an application for a new hearing in the case of Catherine Jones against the Norfolk and Western Railway Co. The court overruled the motion and the judgment of $2,500 for Mrs. Jones stands."

ITCHING, BLISTERED SKIN-ERUPTION ALL HIS LIFE, NOW CURED

Jan. 19, 1914.—"All my life, until about a year ago, I was troubled with itching and sores over my entire body. Itching and burning was terrible, and I could hardly sleep. I used many remedies but they were unsuccessful and I gave up all hope. I started using Doan's Ointment and Resol Soap and they helped me wonderfully. I was RELIEVED AT ONCE, and after two dozen applications I can say that I was free and cured of that awful disease. My skin now is as clear as glass."—(Signed) Geo. Whitaker, 100 E. D. Security Bank Has Made Great Record

The Security Bank of this city ended their twelfth year's business on the fourth inst. The success and growth of this bank is truly phenomenal, in that it has accumulated a surplus of $100,000.00, besides having still $21,700.00 undivided profits. This is in addition to its Capital Stock of $100,000.00. It has 4000 Active Savings Accounts and 1200 Checking Accounts, besides several hundred depositors on Certificates. This bank insures its depositors against loss and is the only bank in Portsmouth that provides this additional safeguard, which is much appreciated by its patrons, who know their money is absolutely safe under all circumstances. The stockholders will hold their annual meeting next Tuesday for the election of Directors for the ensuing year.

Officer Henderson Under Suspension

When Officer Anderson Henderson reported at police headquarters for duty Thursday evening Mayor H. H. Kaps gave him the alternative of resigning or drawing a suspension. Henderson declined to resign and a notice of suspension that had been prepared by the mayor was then signed by Chief Henry Clark and served upon him. The suspension papers charged him with drinking while on duty and of pernicious activity in politics, both of which the mayor stated today would be easy to prove. Harry Dunham, a shoemaker, was at once appointed to take Henderson's place. Henderson expects to make an appeal to the Civil Service commission. He has felt secure of his position, priding himself upon not drinking, chewing or smoking and taking no active part in politics.

B. & O. Going After Workmen Who Drink

The Oak Hill Press says: "The B. & O. officials have started a campaign to break up the use of intoxicating liquors by employees while on duty. When evidence is found of violations the hand rules and the violators are summarily dismissed from the service."

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT IS WHIPPED BY A WOMAN

According to the Waverly Watchman, Supt. Lowell S. Hunter of the Picketon schools, was assaulted and given a man's sized beating by an irate woman, Mrs. James Martin. The woman became enraged because Supt. Hunter had been compelled to discipline her boy for refusing to obey school rules. She called at the schools, sailed into Mr. Hunter and, according to the Watch-

ABUNDANCE OF FRESH FACTS

First Aid to Happiness and Prosperity in the New Year

Among first aids to a happy and prosperous New Year there is always The World Almanac. This standard reference book, fresh from the presses and bearing the date 1916, is now available to purchasers. A peep into the book shows that it comes to the public bringing, according to its annual custom, not only the election returns, crop reports, business figures, sporting records and other statements and statistics covering the transactions of the year just passed, but the abundance of fresh facts and features necessary to keeping up with a world that moves.

The great war in Europe receives attention in a summary of events and a chronological table. At another extreme of public interest, the development of the motion picture business is considered. There are two pages about Woman Suffrage achievements and the recent vote. The substance is given of the Constitution rejected at the New York polls last November. And among the other and unnumbered subjects of special attention are these:

Widowed Mothers' Pensions; Political Platforms; Congressional Committees; State Legislation in the United States; Peace Movements; the Lincoln Highway from New York to San Francisco; and the Dixie Highway from the Lakes to the Gulf; War Relief Societies; Armed Strength of the World; Manufacture of Munitions and Explosives; 1915 State Census; Diplomats Dismissed from the United States; National Reading Circle; Public, Society and School Libraries in the United States; Workmen's Compensation Laws; Gary School System; Health Laws in New York City; the Automobile Industry; Naval Advisory Board; Public School System in New York City; Unemployed in New York City.

As to things not to be found in this Almanac, it seems almost likely that there are not any such things. Anyway, one must go out of his way to discover them.

More New Firemen

Stoker Melvin H. Ogden and Driver Frank C. Argebright, of the Hilltop fire engine company, voluntarily resigned Thursday evening. Fire Chief George Koerner accepted the resignations, but has not yet relieved the two men, having not definitely decided whom he will appoint to their places. That both resigned was somewhat of a surprise, administration officials say. They claim that they had expected to ask for the resignation of one of them, but had not as yet thought of relieving the other.

Woman Is Warned

The mayor had a West End woman on the carpet Thursday evening on complaint of a couple of machinists who charged she was responsible for the dissipated condition of a friend. This man they thought was on the verge of delirium and a physician was called to examine him but found his condition was not serious. The woman was permitted to go with a warning.

Vanceburg Notes

The following items from this week's Vanceburg, Ky., Sun are of interest here:

Mrs. Thos. Plummer was born August 8, 1850. She was stricken with paralysis Thursday afternoon and died Monday morning.

She was united in marriage to Thos. Plummer, September 29th, 1870. To this union was born 13 children, five are still living.

Mrs. Plummer united with the M. E. church when a girl and lived a good christian life.

Besides her husband she is survived by her five daughters and three brothers.

Her funeral was conducted by Rev. A. H. Davis, of Covington, after which she was laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mrs. Wm. Plummer and daughter, Miss Minta, returned to their home at Portsmouth Friday after a visit with Mrs. Hattie Parker.

While shucking corn on his farm near Cottageville on Tuesday, J. E. Jones heard a peculiar noise in a tree nearby and upon investigating he found that the tree contained a real live monkey. The monkey was run out of the tree and under a cliff where he was captured.

MORE CO-OPERATION IS URGED AT MEETING OF THE BUSINESS MEN

Advocate Chamber Of Commerce For The Peerless City

About forty members of the Business Men's Association attended the smoker given by a committee appointed by the directors Thursday evening in the Masonic Temple building, which was one of the most profitable and enjoyable meetings ever held by the association.

Addresses were made by Vallee Harold, C. E. Dowling, W. W. Anderson, Oscar Coburn, Jr., and Charles Daehler, and each one of them proved to be an interesting and instructive talker. Albert Zoellner, the president, presided.

Arrangements for the smoker were in charge of a committee composed of William Tritschler, J. A. Bode and Charles Daehler. Plenty of cigars were provided for all, and the air was blue with smoke.

The members met between 7:30 and 8 o'clock in the office of the association on the third floor of the building, and from there went to the rooms in the rear of the second floor, where chairs had been arranged to accommodate them.

During the evening, the new credit rating book for the next two years was formally launched, and about twenty contracts were signed before the meeting disbanded. Retail merchants all over the city will be solicited to become members of the association and avail themselves of the advantages of the rating book.

The smoker was characterized by a closer fellowship and union among the members than is usually in evidence at the formal banquets, and it would occasion no surprise were more of such meetings held during the remainder of the winter. Surely, any member remaining away Thursday evening did so at his own personal loss.

PRESIDENT ZOELLNER OPENS MEETING

The meeting was opened by Albert Zoellner, the president of the association, who made a few introductory remarks. Mr. Zoellner said in part:

"You were invited to attend this meeting by the directors of the association, and it is right that such meetings as this one should be held. The Business Men's Association should be a power in this city, and it is only through frequent gatherings of this kind that it can be so.

"The enlargement of the steel plant, the hum of the shoe factories, the completion of the

POSTMASTER HAROLD TALKS

Vallee Harold, the postmaster, was introduced as the first speaker. Mr. Harold, while suffering with a severe attack of the grip, made a somewhat lengthy speech, in which he offered valuable advice to the members of the association, gleaned from his experience as a newspaper editor.

Mr. Harold stated that his talk would be characterized by frankness and sincerity. "You're necessary to me and I'm necessary to you. The virtue of an occasion like this is talking straight to each other. It is better than a banquet.

"While I don't know what are the declared purposes of your association, I take it that the object of the organization is to promote fellowship and promote business. Those two purposes are sufficient to consume all of the energies of a body of men like this.

"The other fellow has got as much right to be here as you have, and he probably hasn't any more regard for you and your business methods than you have for his. If he were to go away, some one else would take his place and he might be worse.

"There is danger that you, as fast enough to vote it out of an association, might think that free."

DISCUSSES CHILDREN'S HOME SITE

Mr. Harold then took up the matter of the Children's Home proposition, which has been engaging the attention of the he said, just to show the association what they were facing if they attempted to take any sides on the proposition.

Mr. Harold also told of the Neosho Business Club, of Neosho, Missouri, which he said was the most successful organization of its kind in the country because it attended strictly to business. He told about their "Bargain Days" held every month, which attracted shoppers from cities much larger than Neosho, and recommended something of that kind to interest the out of town shoppers to this city.

C. E. DOWLING NEXT SPEAKER

The next speaker was C. E. Dowling, one of the city's best-posted credit men, who spoke on the subject of "Credits."

At the outset, Mr. Dowling stated that the subject of credits was one that was too big for a little man to handle, and offered so many different angles that a man could talk about it all night and then not half cover the ground.

As introductory to his talk, he read the New Year's greeting to the members of the National Credit Men's Association from one of its high officials, and also read the preamble to the constitution of the association, which provided for—

"The better protection of our credit; the reduction of losses through bad debts; the prevention of fraud and injustice to creditors; the prosecution and punishment of fraud; the reform and improvement of our collection laws; the improvement of our commercial reporting system; the improvement of our collection methods in handling bankrupt sales."

The National Association, he argued, stood for the things which the retail merchants in any city stood for, and they could do no better than adopt the general theory of the association in relation to credits.

"The conversion of accounts and bills receivable into cash, becomes one of the greatest, if not

CREDIT AN OLD INSTITUTION

"Credit, history seems to tell us, is as old as the world itself. God Almighty, in His infinite wisdom, created man, and having given him dominion over things upon earth, under certain conditions, peace and prosperity seemed assured, but no, the perverse ness of Father Adam and his insatiable desire to acquire everything, lost him the riches at first bestowed upon him, and we have since chronicled the first bankruptcy.

"Until the early part of the 19th century, there was no such thing as a credit system in the United States. But American ingenuity, ever to the front, evolved a business for collecting and distributing information concerning business men as a first aid to the extension of credit, and thus was born the first Mercantile Agency.

WARWICK ANDERSON MAKES ADDRESS

A review of the birth and development of the credit rating system of the Business Men's Association was given by Warwick W. Anderson of the Anderson Brothers Company, and one of the original contributors in charge of the first credit books ever got out in this city.

Mr. Anderson weighed in with a healthy boost for the book, claiming that his firm had no apologies to make for the book, but a single penny in credits and said that it had done everything that had been claimed for it.

He said the property was worth easily $100,000, and that it was being used to take care of about 40 children, who were located in a wrong place for their development and growth.

Some people, he said, favored the creation of a new hospital, but the speaker wanted to know from the credit book, that where the money was coming, understanding that his firm had the contracts were all ready to build it. He also said that he had credit experience with 5000 sign. Fully half of the members plaid the fact to the members that the people living in the vicinity of the property did not want a hospital next to their homes.

And Mr. Harold said that they were no different from himself and the members present when they did not want a hospital next to their homes.

He also mentioned the sentiment of many that the property that the East End Association had been kept because of the prehistoric value of the grounds, the Business Men's Association. Why, we have our own land and the Board of Health and generalists that are not even kept in the most perfect condition, so why spend so much time on a place that may be the burial ground of some prehistoric race, and maybe wasn't?

In conclusion Mr. Harold cited figures from the local post office to show that the merchants of this city were not getting the mail order business in the territory around Portsmouth that they should. He said that the merchants would just have to dig into the ears of the farmers that they could buy as cheaply in Portsmouth as they could from the mail order houses of Chicago, New York, Pittsburgh, and other large cities, and eventually, he said, they would get the business.

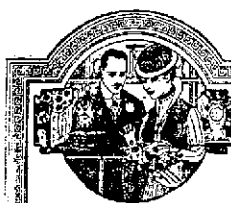

recommended that a committee of three men should be appointed to take up the matter with the city officials. President Zoellner said that he would appoint three men on a committee, and that President Coburn should appoint three men, to which the latter assented.

CHARLES DAehler LAST SPEAKER

The final talk of the evening was made by Charles Daehler, former president of the association, and one of its strongest boosters. He thanked the members for the royal support which he had received from them, and told how he had thoroughly enjoyed the work.

Mr. Daehler, who is now the vice president of the association, warmly seconded President Zoellner's invitation for the members to attend the meetings of the directors, and also urged them to use the office rooms of the association for any conference which they might wish to hold with some other business associate or friend.

Mr. Daehler added his word of commendation to that of the other speakers for the credit rating book, which he said was of invaluable aid to the retail merchants.

SHOES Bridge Co. Elects

The Ironton Register Thursday said: The Chesapeake-Huntington Bridge company of Lawrence county met in this city today and effected an organization by electing D. C. Davies, president; Tom C. Smith, vice president and Thomas W. Harvey, secretary and treasurer. The above named officials and Messrs. J. C. Miller of Huntington and A. R. Johnson of Ironton were made directors.

This company was organized to act in conjunction with the Huntington-Chesapeake company in building a combination bridge over the Ohio river between Huntington and Chesapeake.

THEATRICAL

The Simple Simon Company opened a three days' engagement at the Sun theatre yesterday. This company is class from start to finish. Splendid vocalists, special scenic effects and natty costumes. It was a pretty scene when the curtain went up—a beautiful setting in a rose garden, with electrical effects.

Mr. Gene Oliver received a splendid reception on his first appearance and he kept the audience in a continual roar of laughter. He is a clever comedian and knows how to hand out good, wholesome comedy.

Miss Hartman has a pleasing voice and her rendition of "Caroline" assisted by the entire company, was a decided hit.

There will be an entire change of bill tonight.

Install New Chairs

John J. Jackson & Son have just installed two latest improved Koken white enameled leather chairs in their Turkey building leather shop. These, together with a fine electric massaging machine, sterilizing outfit and other new equipment, make the shop one of the most sanitary and up-to-date in the city.

Harmony Lodge Elects

John Woods, janitor of the Turkey building, has been elected the new commander of Harmony Lodge, No. 11, colored Knights of Pythias, to succeed Frank McCall, whose six months' term has expired. Terry Jamison was chosen to succeed Mr. Woods as vice-commander. The two new officers will be installed next Monday night.

POLICE NEWS

Police court cases disposed of by Mayor Kays, Thursday evening, were the following: Harold Phillips, charged with taking a bottle of beer from an ice box at Fred Winters' saloon for which he was fined $10; Negro Sam Johnson was fined $10 for fighting while a $80 fine against Elmer Bowman was suspended on condition that he pay in weekly installments of $2 the $40 damage he had done to a large window of James Goodpastor's grocery.

A. C. Trout was arrested by Officer Sheppard late Thursday night on a charge of assaulting Millie Hawthorn, of Sixth and Gay streets, Sunday.

The young woman took a rest for the worse Thursday evening from the effects of her mistaken parent and when Trout refused to provide her with medical attention by engaging a physician for sister, Mina Hawthorn, fled to a friend's home. He secured his release on a $10 cash bond.

GIGANTIC BATTLE RAGING ON RUSSIAN FRONTIER

800,000 MEN WITH 3,500 CANNON BATTLE INCESSANTLY

Paris, Jan. 7.—Fighting on the Russian frontier is fast growing in intensity and is assuming great ferocity says the Petrograd correspondent of the Havas Agency in a dispatch filed Wednesday. Dispatches from Kiev declare the noise of cannon can be heard along a distance of thirty-six miles. The battle is raging with particular fury on the Tarnopol-Trembowla front where more than 600,000 men with 3,500 cannon are incessantly engaged. Long Austro-German Red Cross trains are leaving this front daily for more remote and thinly populated towns where hospitals have been organized.

BIG FIRE IN CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 7.—The large three-story depot and office building of the Adams Express Company at the northwest corner of Front and Butler streets, this city, was destroyed by fire early today. The loss estimated at $800,000.

Crossed electric wires in the auditor's department on the second floor of the building is said to have caused the fire.

During the height of the fire a large amount of money was removed from the building by John J. Dale, assistant general agent and a squad of police. Mr. Dale refused to state the amount of money removed.

RIOTING AT YOUNGSTOWN

Youngstown, O., Jan. 7.—Incipient rioting occurred here last night and early today in connection with the strike of workmen at the plant of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company in East Youngstown, two miles from the main portion of the city. One man was injured.

The strike forces had grown today from 600, who were out yesterday, to 3,000. There are 9,000 employees of the plant. The strikers began picketing last evening and worked in shifts all night and were still on duty this morning. During the night and early today they refused to permit any workmen to enter the plant. Those who attempted it were greeted with showers of stones, bricks and clubs.

Every street car which approached the plant was stopped by pulling the trolley pole from the wire. Any workmen on board were dragged off, their dinner buckets torn from their grasp and thrown away, and the prisoners placed on cars going in opposite directions and sent away. Stones were thrown through the car windows and many narrow escapes from serious injury occurred.

The East Youngstown police force consists of only ten men who have been continuously on duty for 24 hours and seemed unable to prevent disturbances. Sheriff J. C. Umstead went to the scene last night and talked with Mayor M. V. Cunningham as to the advisability of closing saloons but this was not done. The sheriff is watching the situation today and in case of serious trouble will act promptly. Today it was reported that a considerable quantity of fuse had been stolen from a stone quarry near the steel plant and officials fear dynamiting may be attempted.

FEDERAL TROOPS ARE CORRUPTED

Canton, China, Jan. 7.—One hundred armed men at midnight attacked and looted the Chinese custom house on the boundary of Kowloon. The Marauders posted proclamations describing themselves as revolutionaries. Further trouble is expected here at any time as it is believed that the rebels have corrupted the government troops. The town of Kowloon is situated on the Peninsula of the same name on the island of Hong Kong. The boundary referred to in the above dispatch evidently is that which divides Chinese territory from the British colony. COMMONS PASS DRAFT BILL

WILD SCENES AS MILITARY LAW WAS ENDORSED

London, Jan. 7.—Amid scenes of wild enthusiasm, the House of Commons last night passed the first reading of the bill for compulsory military service, by the decisive vote of 403 to 105.

The vote came shortly before midnight, with the galleries again packed, every seat on the floor of the house occupied, the ministerial benches filled and an air of eager expectancy prevailing.

It was reserved for A. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty, to close the debate in behalf of the government, and he did it in a persuasive appeal of half an hour, which turned the tide of adversity which had been running steadily against the measure through the debate.

"Let this vote tonight show that we are a united people," was his closing appeal. Do not let us give a nationalistic false impression to the world. Abandon your abstract theories, and reported the measure and the O'Brien member we are dealing with stern realities which call for great sacrifices."

Then came the vote. The announcement of the figures was received with a tremendous outburst of cheering which was echoed to the waiting crowds outside. Scores of men in khaki waved their hats in the air.

Amid the demonstration, Premier Asquith, himself usually pale, now glowing with satisfaction, walked down the floor of the house to present the bill formally to the chamber. His appearance was the signal for a rapturous ovation. An analysis of the vote showed that the government had held the great bulk of the liberal, House, and William Bruce, parliamentary under secretary for Home Affairs, and George H. Roberts, Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, also labor party leaders, have resigned from the ministry.

PAN-AMERICAN POLICY IS OUTLINED BY PRESIDENT

PERU NAMED FOR THE NEXT CONFERENCE

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States government's Pan-American policy was revealed in detail by President Wilson last night in an address before the second Pan-American Congress. He explained the proposals submitted to South and Central American diplomats here last week by Secretary Lansing as a basis for an effective agreement between all the republics of the Western Hemisphere "not only for international peace of America but the domestic peace of America." This program, as outlined by the president, proposes that all the American nations shall:

remarks. Lima, Peru, was selected for the next session of the Pan-American Scientific Congress, which meets in 1921, the centennial of Peru's declaration of independence.

The president in his address, said in part: "I have been told a very interesting fact—I hope that it is true—that while this congress has been discussing science, it has in spite of itself, been led into feeling behind science there was some interference with regard to politics and that if the Americas were to be united in thought they must, in some degree, sympathetically be united in action. What these statesmen, who have been conferring from month to month in Washington, have come to realize is that back of the community of material interest there is a community of political interest."

"I do not mean a mere partnership in the things that are expedient, I mean that you cannot separate politics from these things, that you cannot have real intercourse of any kind amidst political jealousies, which is only another way of saying that you cannot commune unless you are friends and that friendship is based upon your political relations with each other perhaps more than upon any other kind of relationships between nations. The object of American statesmanship on the two continents is to see to it that American friendship is founded on a rock."

made all day Thursday and late last night, but one body had been recovered from the Ohio river from the scene of the sinking of the Pittsburgh Charleston packet Kanawha which sank near here Wednesday night. The body, found in a clump of willows near Harris Ferry, was identified as that of Anna Campbell, colored, of Pomeroy, Ohio, a chambermaid on the steamer.

If the estimate of the captain of the steamer is correct, there are nine other persons, names unknown, who are missing. The list of passengers along with other official dockets of the packet, sank along with the steamer and this makes the task of ascertaining the loss difficult. Of the total of 45 survivors known, 10 were passengers, and 35 members of the crew.

The loss occasioned by the sinking of the Kanawha will run very large, according to Captain Roe. In addition to the boat, which is almost a total loss, the cargo which comprised about 150 tons of freight, the complete loss will run into the thousands, he said.

Two rough looking men entered Isaac Thompson's grocery at Grandview avenue and Summit streets about 6:45 Thursday evening and acted very suspiciously. Police headquarters was notified but the pair decamped before officers could reach the scene.

Nine out of ten persons have this dread disease

Pyorrhea—the most general disease in the world—is the disease you should be guarding your teeth against. It is caused by a germ which is found in every human mouth. Thousands have already lost some or all of their teeth from this disease; in thousands it has reached the stage of bleeding gums and loose teeth; in thousands of others the germ, unsuspected, is just starting its work of destruction. Start today to guard your teeth from the dread results of this disease by using a corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet. To meet the need for such a treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth. Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms sufficient. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Co., 503 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

THE ETHICS OF ADVERTISING

The Editor and Publisher, a trade paper devoted to the interests of the publishing business, in its last issue had a statement of ethics that might well apply to all newspapers and to all advertisers as well, as they are interested in publishers conducting their business along high lines, and on lines of rendering value received for the money spent by advertisers. The editorial, in part, follows:

The Editor and Publisher does not solicit advertising "to help the paper along."

The Editor and Publisher does not wait for a contemporary to develop an advertising account, and then to proceed to make life miserable for that advertiser until he has also agreed to give it "its full share" of his expenditure for publicity.

No advertiser runs the slightest risk of incurring adverse criticism of his proposition because of his failure to advertise in the Editor and Publisher; and no advertiser secures the slightest immunity from criticism, if criticism of his methods or purposes should serve the trade interests and ethics, because of the fact that he advertises in the columns of the Editor and Publisher.

The Editor and Publisher believes that to serve the public worthily it must adhere, always, to the same high standards of un-influenced independence that make the great daily newspaper a power for public good in its field.

The Editor and Publisher prints the news of the great industry that it serves—but it does not believe that its purpose is best served by going no further than that. It aspires to serve, also, as a forum for discussion of all plans, policies and methods that are influencing the making of newspapers, and their value to advertisers. Its crusade against the insidious coupon evil is merely a case in point. There are more fights ahead—and some of them are taking shape now.

Considering the extent and importance of the field, The Editor and Publisher should carry a great deal more advertising than it does carry. It should not be far behind the Iron Age, the Boot and Shoe Recorder and other trade publications of great importance. It is confidently believed by the management of the Editor and Publisher that the time is not far away when it will carry as large a volume of advertising as either of the trade papers named.

But not a line of this advertising shall ever be secured through the argument that any advertiser in this field "owes" his "support" to the paper—that he should "help it along."

Advertising, in the Editor and Publisher, is for the purpose of "helping along" the advertiser. It represents his effort to utilize, for the advancement of his business interests, the channel of communication opened to him, through our columns, by which he can reach his logical patron—by which he can sell his goods, his commodity, his proposition.

We are selling service, and delivering it when we sell it.

We do not want to carry a line of advertising in the Editor and Publisher that does not pay the advertiser. We do not solicit the business of any man unless we believe that we can serve him.

SUCCESS A TWO-EDGED SWORD

Success is a sort of two-edged sword. It cuts both ways at times, and is about as dangerous a thing to handle as is failure. In fact, success has ruined nearly as many men as has failure.

Because a man is successful in one direction is not indicative that he would be successful in all other directions. James J. Hill, the greatest railroad builder this country has ever known, a man who worked his way up from a section hand to the maker of an empire, failed miserably in running a newspaper, and had to give it up. There have been many other cases of the kind.

Henry Ford's success as a manufacturer evidently led him to believe he could not fail at anything he turned his hands to. He saw the war looming large in the world. He had accomplished more in the manufacturing world than any other man on earth ever accomplished in the same length of time. He has established economic methods that proved successful when all the rest of the world predicted defeat for them. He had been a pioneer in many respects in business. So it was but natural that he believed he could do in the diplomatic world, or with nations, what no one else could do. His failure is but another example of how it is possible for a man to be successful in one direction and to fail in another direction.—Dayton News.

Times have changed. Here's Mark Hanna's old home in Washington, where he used to entertain President McKinley and other notables at his famous corned beef breakfasts now being used as the headquarters of the Woman's Suffrage party. Wonder what Mark would say if he happened to turn up some day and discover militant women suffragists holding forth and planning campaigns in his old home?

Tomaso Salvini, contemporary of Booth, Barrett and McCullough, and accounted as good an actor as any of the three, died the other day in Rome. He was 86 years old. He made his greatest successes in Othello and The Gladiator. His last appearance in this country was in 1890. By many he was considered the greatest "Othello" in the history of the stage.

The idea of the government spending a few millions in canalizing the Sejoto sounds good, but the question is, what would we do with it after it was canalized? Does any rational being suppose there would be enough freight to pay the cost of operation and maintenance, let alone justify the expense incurred?

THAT "INVESTIGATION"

FULL AND COMPLETE RETRACTION

One of the staff of our writers last week made us say that Jim Farris was blown up while kindling the morning fire with kerosene. It was the worst blunder this paper ever made. Not that Jim took any exceptions to the item, in fact he rather felt proud of it, but his wife was peeved. She said that in all the years she had lived with Jim that he had not once got up and built a fire, and even if he was her husband she was not going to let him get away with glory that belonged to her. The kerosene explosion incident did not take place in their home at all. It was at the John Farris home and John was the one who was singed.—Smith County (Kan.) Pioneer.

It is unfortunate that so good a law as the new school law should be abused by some superintendents who seek to transform it into a political machine, for their own glorification and advancement. Such men cannot have the good of the schools at heart. They are just political parasites, willing to sacrifice the interests of the thousands of school children to their own selfish aims. They seek to control the teachers under them by virtue of their authority, and to throw this strength in whatever direction their own fancy might indicate. Fortunately, we are told by a competent authority, there are only a few superintendents in Ohio who are politicians first and school superintendents afterwards and it is hoped to get rid of these few in the not distant future.

Now that the excellent "Shorty" Weidner has been appointed superintendent of the county infirmary we suppose that he will forget his intention of being a candidate for commissioner this Fall.

Bill Barnes, of Albany, who refused to accept Colonel Roosevelt's characterization of him as a "boss" as being gospel truth until a jury confirmed the charge, now has had to pay for the proving. It cost Bill a trifle over a thousand dollars. 'Twould have been cheaper to have taken to the woods until the raging one had passed by.

It would, indeed, be a happy thing to place Mr. Taft on the supreme bench, in case he desires the appointment. His whole training in life fits him for the position, and he would lend added dignity and lustre to the court. His selection would meet with no carping or captious criticism. Of course Roosevelt is excepted.

Charlie Hans says he is not a candidate for a police job. Correct. What's the use of being a candidate when the choice plums that were desired have dropped into other hands? Charlie is a "was," not an "is" in the candidate business.

Tammen replied: "John Dee! and the dictated reply came back: 'I would be glad to see you at my office. Just telephone Broad and 2990.' He called on the millionaire and remained two hours, but he wouldn't tell reporters what was said.

Tammen is a soldier of fortune, circus owner and mainspring of his paper. Associated with him on the Post are Harry Bonfils and Otto Floto, the latter the only sporting editor extant with the four O's in his name. Tammen used to be the bartender at the Brown Palace in Denver and he was such live wire that he simply couldn't be repressed.

No Chance for Sunday Rest in That Town

Our town was rather on the stir all day last Sunday—or rather people from other neighborhoods and counties. A party near Moreland hauled corn all day with a two-horse wagon and team from land he had rented adjoining the city limits and another man and team from Casey county passed through with a wagon load of canned sorghum syrup he had sold. A few loads of tobacco also passed through in the evening. All went through by a church where a baptizing was going on and caused lots of comment.—Hustonsville correspondence Stanford (Ky.) Journal.

Tooth Etiquette

Do not take the teeth out and polish them during a banquet. This is not done in the best circles.

Do not carry the teeth in the tail pocket of your dress suit, for you are liable to sit down on them and be severely bitten.

When you have to sneeze or cough, go away by yourself in a dark corner and hold your hand over your mouth. You can never tell what will happen.

If the teeth click when you talk, oil them frequently, for noisy teeth often disturb the neighbors and there is enough to keep them awake at night without that.

Do not carry the toothbrush in the upper vest pocket, for if you do people will know that you have not had your teeth very long.—Roy K. Moulton in Akron Beacon-Journal.

A Good Letter

Someone has advanced the opinion that the letter "e" is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet, because it is always out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger and in hell all the time. For some reason, he overlooked the fortunes of the letter, as we call his attention to the fact "e" is never in war and always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no meat, no life and no heaven. It is the center of honesty, makes love perfect, and without it there could be no editors, devils nor news.—Exchange.

FOUR BISHOPS THINK THAT PORTSMOUTH FORTUNATE

By securing the services of Fenwick Reed in the union revival to be held at Trinity church auditorium beginning Sunday, four bishops of the Methodist church think Portsmouth is fortunate. Cities all over the country are continually after Evangelist Reed and his coming to Portsmouth for a campaign will no doubt disappoint other localities which have been after him.

Bishop Edwin H. Hughes who appeared on the high school lecture course a few weeks ago is very loud in his praises of Fenwick Reed as a man and as an evangelist, and thinks that the local churches are doing well to secure the services of such an able man. Bishop Francis McConnell writes from Denver that he has the greatest admiration for Fenwick Reed and his work and this from Bishop McConnell is praise indeed. Bishop Moore and Bishop Quayle are no less enthusiastic over the work of Evangelist Reed than other bishops and ministers with whom Reed has worked, and all are sanguine of great success in the local meetings.

Evangelist Reed and his party will arrive in the city Saturday to take a survey of the situation here before beginning the meetings Sunday.

Window cards for stores and public places and for display in windows of private homes are being distributed today to advertise the meetings, and every Methodist in the city is requested to assist in the work by displaying these cards prominently immediately upon their delivery. If you are missed, secure cards at your Sunday school or church Sunday.

INSTALLATION FOLLOWED BY ENJOYABLE SMOKER

Annual installation of officers was the magnet that drew one of the largest crowds of the season to the Eagle hall at Second and Court streets Thursday evening.

Officers elected recently were installed with impressive exercises, the role of the installing officer being successfully enacted by District Grand Worthy President Percy Dean, of Ironton. There were many visitors present and the meeting took on the form of a love feast. One visitor hailed from Fairbault, Minn. The following officers were installed:

Past worthy president, W. O. Stanger; worthy president, W. B. Schuyler; worthy vice president, Paul K. Bauer; worthy chaplain, Ernest Beaver; worthy secretary, H. H. Grice; worthy treasurer, W. J. Baker; trustees, Henry Roth, Otto Lauffer and W. G. Hall.

The installation services were followed by a very enjoyable smoker. Many short talks that reflected the true Eagle spirit were made at the meeting.

Vanceburg Notes

The following items from this week's Vanceburg, Ky., Sun are of interest here:

Mrs. Thos. Plummer was born August 3, 1850. She was stricken with paralysis Thursday afternoon and died Monday morning.

She was united in marriage to Thos. Plummer, September 20th, 1870. To this union was born 13 children, five are still living.

Mrs. Plummer united with the M. E. church when a girl and lived a good christian life. Besides her husband she is survived by her five daughters and three brothers.

Her funeral was conducted by Rev. A. H. Davis, of Covington, after which she was laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mrs. Wm. Plummer and daughter, Miss Minta, returned to their home at Portsmouth Friday after a visit with Mrs. Hattie Parker.

While shaking corn on his arm near Cottageville on Tuesday, J. E. Jones heard a peculiar noise in a tree nearby and upon investigating he found that the tree contained a real live monkey. The monkey was run out of the tree and under a cliff where he was captured.

The regular election of officers of Polar Star Lodge No. 363 Free and Accepted Masons was held at 2:00 o'clock p. m. on St. John's day, December 27, 1915. The following officers were elected: Master, J. H. McElhenny; Senior Warden, J. P. Strother; Junior Warden, O. P. Tashman; Senior Deacon, W. P. Bowman; Junior Deacon, George T. Williams; Treasurer, E. T. Bowman; Secretary, J. W. Cox; Tyler, W. M. Davis.

A public installation was given the same evening at 7:00 o'clock, which was attended by a large number of Masons with their ladies and guests.

Mrs. Jane Halbert and Miss Ruby Palmer were shopping in Portsmouth Tuesday.

Marion Barber, of Portsmouth, was here on business Monday.

The following committees have been appointed by the new council:

Law and Ordinance, G. W. Brune, H. C. Keyser, Sam Pollitt.

Ways and Means, H. C. Keyser, C. W. Hammond, E. F. McCrone.

Claims and Grievances, C. W.

KING'S THIRD SON IS A WAR WORKER

Prince Henry.

Prince Henry, the third son of King George, who is too young to go to the front, has become a war worker and is employed as a mvy in the ordnance corps. His work is to help load and unload army supplies of railway cars and push loaded trucks. He is only fifteen years old, but very sturdy.

OFFICIALS SURPRISED AT FRONIE'S ESCAPADES

Police Chief Clark, who took all "Catsy" Sly and William Ike Hill to the workhouse, found the weather considerably colder in Cincinnati than here Thursday and returned home on an afternoon train. He was most cordially received by the workhouse officials. They expressed great surprise over the way Fronie Hildingsworth carried on at home after leaving there, saying that she was a model prisoner and one of the best workers in the institution during her long stay at the "works."

Security Bank Has Made Great Record

The Security Bank of this city ended their twelfth year's business on the fourth inst.

The success and growth of this Bank is truly phenomenal, in that it has accumulated a surplus of $100,000.00, besides having still $21,700.00 undivided profits.

This is in addition to its Capital Stock of $100,000.00.

It has 4600 Active Savings Accounts and 1500 Checking Accounts.

besides several hundred depositors on Certificates.

This bank insures its depositors against loss and is the only bank in Portsmouth that provides this additional safeguard, which is much appreciated by its patrons, who know their money is absolutely safe under all circumstances.

The Stockholders will hold their annual meeting next Tuesday for the election of Directors for the ensuing year.

Officer Henderson Under Suspension

When Officer Anderson Henderson reported at police headquarters for duty Thursday evening Mayor H. H. Kaps gave him the alternative of resigning or drawing a suspension.

Henderson declined to resign and a notice of suspension that had been prepared by the mayor was then signed by Chief Henry Clark and served upon him. The suspension papers charged him with drinking while on duty and of pernicious activity in politics, both of which the mayor stated today would be easy to prove. Harry Dunham, a shoemaker, was at once appointed to take Henderson's place.

Henderson expects to make an appeal to the Civil Service commission. He has felt secure of his position, priding himself upon not drinking, chewing or smoking and of taking no active part in politics.

B. & O. Going After Workmen Who Drink

The Oak Hill Press says: "The B. & O. officials have started a campaign to break up the use of intoxicating liquors by employees while on duty. When evidence is found of violations the hard rules and the violators are summarily dismissed from the service."

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT IS WHIPPED BY A WOMAN

According to the Waverly Watchman, Supt. Lowell S. Bin-ter, of the Piketon Schools, was assaulted and given a man's sized beating by an irate woman.

Mrs. James Martin, the woman, became enraged because Supt. Binter had been compelled to discipline her boy for refusing to obey school rules. She called at the schools, sailed into Mr. Binter and, according to the Watchman, she "mussed his neatly combed hair and tore the buttons from his garments." Furthermore, the Watchman says, "The unfortunate superintendent resisted, he hit and bled, but to no avail, he was worsted and badly at that."

Stanley Jones, who conducts a drug store at Eleventh and Hutchins street, is a son of Mrs. Catherine Jones.

The court overruled the motion, and the judgment of $2,500 for Mrs. Jones stands.

Earl Reinhard, who for several years had been employed by the Interstate Transfer Company has resigned and will on next Monday accept employment in the cutting room of the Selby Shoe Company.

George Saleros and Caser Gain Castina have purchased Nick Argosta's shoe shine parlor in the Carr building.

When a change of residence is desired by those whom the Germans are trying to Germanize, it is necessary to establish one's identity with that of the photograph before the Germans issue a passport.

GUN THRUST IN FACE; POCKETS ARE RIFLED

Frank Gilliland, of Tenth street, a watchman at the Lawson Run viaduct, reported to the police that two well-dressed white men, wearing overcoats, had held him up at 12:45 o'clock Friday morning. They then ran up the railroad tracks. Officers Bramham, Osborn and Callahan Smith searched for men of the description given by Gilliland, but without result.

RIVAL TAXI MEN ENGAGE IN FIST FIGHT AT DEPOT

Passengers and bystanders in the vicinity of the N. & W. depot were treated to a lively fist-fight between rival taxi line managers Thursday evening.

Thomas L. Wall, of the Interstate Company, and John B. Froelich, of the Independent Company, were principals in the mixup, which was precipitated by an argument that arose over the space allotted to them on the depot premises. Wall accused the other of deliberately backing a taxi into one of his, charging it was his second offense of the kind. Both appeared willing and eager to settle their difference with the means of defense nature had supplied them with, and backing off to one side, were soon wading into each other.

Fire Chief George Koerner accepted the resignation, but has not as yet relieved the two men, having not definitely decided whom to appoint to their places. That both resigned was somewhat of a surprise, administration officials said. They claim that they had expected to ask for the resignation of one of them, but had not as yet thought of relieving the other.

Stoker Millin H. Ogden and Driver Frank C. Argerbright, of the Hilltop fire engine company, voluntarily resigned Thursday evening.
